

Tom Watson

I am a parent governor, with a child in Aycliffe Village Primary School, and hope to work with governors and staff to create the best possible experience and education for all.

My work is focused on organisational development, governance and fundraising. I have board experience and am a former teacher.